CORPORATION SECURITY IS THE BEST, BECAUSE

It relieves business men and persons possessing property from the necessity of saying "No" to friends and relatives who may ask them to qualify on bonds of various kinds, which, if they did, would create a constant liability, impair their financial credit, and involve a possible loss.

When once adopted it is never abandoned.

"PILLSBURY'S BEST"—OUR ANAL- YSIS.

We take no part for granted. The reputa- tion of wheat counts nothing with us; we analyze it. If it is not healthful and nutritious enough for "Pillsbury's Best" we sell it to others. Our standard is high. Though we only get wheat from the best wheat lands in America, most of that is not good enough. What we use has a larger percentage of gluten and other healthful ingredients than any other wheat that is ground. For sale by

BIG BARGAIN FOR RENT.

A large dwelling, suitable for a board- ing house, containing 18 rooms, with all modern improvements, in splendid condition, No. 19 Seventh avenue s. w., very close to new postoffice and railroad offices. Apply to TULEY J. MITCHELL, No. 8 East Campbell street.

AN IMPORTANT CASE.

Hon. A. P. Staples and C. H. Vines, Esq., will leave for Richmond to night to argue an important building and loan as- sociation case before the court of appeals on Monday. The question involved is the authority of the hustings court to appoint a trustee in the place of the original trustee, who was the president and a stockholder of the mortgagee and resigned. In nearly all the deeds of trusts to building and loan associations in this city the trustee is a stockholder and hence the decision will be watched with interest. Mr. Staples represents the borrower and Mr. Vines the association.

APPOINTED RECEIVER.

Maj. A. D. Reynolds, of Bristol, was yesterday appointed receiver of the Holston Building and Loan Association of Bristol. The Holston has a large number of stockholders in Southwest Vir- ginia.

WE ARE STILL IN IT.

Very much so. Larger stock than ever. Pianos, organs, music, guitars, etc. Prices and terms to suit all. Roanoke Music Co. C. T. Jennings, Manager.

JUSTICE WOODS' COURT.

There were no city cases in the police court yesterday morning, the city having been unusually quiet all day and the night previous. A commonwealth's case was the only thing to occupy the attention of the court. Rachel Clark, colored, was arrested on a warrant charging her with stealing a hat. Justice Woods continued the case until Monday in order to get some witnesses present and he was also of the opinion that this was the third offense committed by the girl and if she is proven guilty it will constitute larceny.

WE WILL SELL at auction Monday morning at 10 o'clock 50 barrels of apples. D. H. CHRISTIAN & CO., Market Square.

A "TRUNK LINE" FOR ROANOKE.

Not exactly a "trunk line," but a line of trunks, sufficient in number to build a trunk line around two or three squares. These are mentioned by Watt, Rettow & Clay and will be disposed of at prices that "knock out" the manufacturer. They also mention their metropolitan display of new dress goods, silks and white goods. Read their ad. on the eighth page.

APPRECIATE THEIR PASTOR.

A delegation of ladies of the United Brethren Church recently called at the United Brethren manse on Seventh avenue s. w., and presented their pastor, Rev. S. L. Rice, with a suit of clothes, in- cluding everything to dress a preacher for conference. They also called in Mrs. Rice and presented her with a fine seal- skin cloak. The receivers of these sub- stantial and timely presents are at a loss to express their gratitude to those who engineered the project and to all who may have contributed in any way towards its consummation. Mr. and Mrs. Rice think they will survive the surprise and will do some speech making in the near future.

The famous Robert Porter Brewing Co's Rock beer will be on sale Monday. Look out for it.

A DISGRACEFUL CONDITION.

Commerce street from Campbell to the brick factory is in such a condition as would be a disgrace to a village. About $30 would put the street in good condi- tion.

AN INTERESTING COLUMN.

J. F. Wingfield, the real estate man, has an unusually interesting column of bargains in city and county property on the sixth page of this paper. It will pay you to read it and see him this week.

HIGH SCHOOLS THE VICTORS.

In a match game of baseball yesterday afternoon the High School nine defeated the Southwest team in a score of 15 to 3.

A RECITAL NEXT FRIDAY.

The pupils of Mrs. Ella Gottschalk-Scel- lison will give a recital next Friday evening, March 19, at the warerooms of the Roanoke Music Company, which promises to be one of great brilliancy and success. Mrs. Scelison's talent as a mu- sician is too well known for comment at this time. Her pupils' recitals always give evidence of the care and training they receive at her hands and the one next Friday will prove no exception in this respect. A beautiful programme has been prepared for the occasion, and a rare treat may be expected.

MRS. GRIFFITH'S FUNERAL.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Fannie S. Griffith will be solem- nize this afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp at Trinity Church, the pastor, Rev. J. T. Jones, officiating, assisted by Rev. H. H. Kennedy, of Salem, and Rev. Dr. L. G. M. Miller, of St. Mark's Church. The interment will be in the City Cemetery. The pall-bearers will be J. L. Kelly, John G. Bringham, Geo. E. Markley, Selton Johnson, Judge A. E. King and R. J. Anderson.

GILKESON & TAYLOR,
HATTERS AND FURNISHERS.

WYSONG CASE MONDAY.

The case of W. H. Wyson's admi- nistrators against the Norfolk and Western's receivers, will be called in the hustings court Monday. This case is a suit for $10,000 damages claimed by W. H. Wyson's administrators, who allege that the railroad was responsible for Mr. Wyson's death. It will be remembered that W. H. Wyson, who was an engineer on the Norfolk and Western, was killed in a wreck near Pamplin about a year ago. The wreck was caused by a cross-tie being placed on the track. The prosecution will be represented by Hansbrough & Hall and H. St. George Tucker. The defense by Watts, Robertson & Robert- son, and quite an interesting legal battle is promised.

HAD THEIR PHOTOS TAKEN.

The members of the Virginia conference had their photographs taken in a group in front of the church yesterday after the morning services were over. A good many of the ministers and delegates wanted a souvenir of the meeting and thought this would be one of the best they could secure.

ABOUT COMPLETED.

The new crossings leading to the post- office are about completed and persons who go there when it is bad weather can cross the streets without getting muddy.

JERRY BROWN ARRESTED.

The police of this city have been in- formed of the arrest of Jerry Brown, who is wanted in Witt county, W. Va., for assault on Mrs. Ida Radford. It will be remembered that a man answering to the description of Brown, was arrested here several days ago but, was afterwards found to be wanted for larceny in West Virginia. Brown was arrested by United States Marshal Vickers, of Huntington, at Williamsport. There was a reward of $200 offered for his capture.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.

A most enjoyable entertainment was given at New Haven school house in Bot- etourt county on the evening of the 13th instant. The entertainment, which was given by the school, was under the direc- tion of Miss Isma Birch, Messrs. Lunsford and Smiley. An address of welcome was delivered by W. W. Kelly, of this city.

JACK, the newsdealer, will deliver any publication, daily paper or otherwise, in any section of the city as soon as practi- cable after arrival. Leave your subscrip- tions at 100 1-2 Campbell avenue.

NIGHT SESSION.

Attendants at the Academy Enjoyed a Rare Treat Last Night.

Persons who have failed to attend the night services held by the Virginia con- ference, now in session, have missed some of the rarest feasts of intellectual en- joyment seldom vouchsafed to the citizens of Roanoke.

The exercises held at the Academy of Music last night was another one of those charming evening services. After sing- ing and prayer Rev. A. J. Partee intro- duced Dr. Hard, of the Church Extension Society.

Dr. Hard's address was in the interest of his branch of the church work and consisted of a full exposition of the work- ings of the church extension society. He spoke of the dependency of one man on another, how everything was dependent upon something else. The different meas- ures used by their society to raise money, by donations and by an annuity plan, whereby they were enabled to lend money for the erection of churches at a very low rate of interest. In the twenty-nine years of the society's existence they have erect- ed 10,184 churches. Placing these side by side and supposing them to each be 30 feet wide, they would extend for 52 miles. His address was replete with beautiful and touching incidents of the good work accomplished by the churches and said that some people say there are too many churches. In answer to this he pointed to some of the fields in which churches were almost unknown and were very much needed. They have raised nearly five million dollars for the purpose since their inception. He pointed out a num- ber of incidents where churches have been erected, that such a thing would have been impossible had it not been for the aid rendered them by this society.

Dr. Hard is an earnest, forcible speaker, uses the purest language and delivers his address with great force and precision, and the large audience there assembled were a unit in their appreciation, as ex- pressed by the careful attention they gave him.

There will be services in the Academy of Music to day as follows:

9:30 a. m. Love Feast.
11 a. m. sermon by Bishop Mallahan.
Services at 3 p. m. by Dr. Boswell, of Philadelphia. The public are cordially invited to attend these services.

STUDENTS' CONCERT.

Mrs. Gravatt's music class, assisted by Misses Agnes Stone and Lila Beckley, gave a most delightful concert at her re- sidence last Thursday evening. The pro- gramme consisted of eighteen numbers and each one was rendered with skill and precision. A large audience was in at- tendance and the ability displayed by the performers reflected much credit upon Mrs. Gravatt as a musical instructor.

SOMETHING GOOD.

L. H. Vaughan & Co., who conduct a grocery and meat market at the corner of Park street and Sixth avenue s. w., and who also conduct stall No. 7 in the city market, have just bought of Ellis Wright, of Roanoke county, a carload of the finest and fattest beef cattle ever offered on the Roanoke market. These cattle will be slaughtered and offered to the public at both the above named places. Those who know how to enjoy a nice, juicy, tender beefsteak or roast can secure the finest of the line by calling at the places named.

MONEY TO LOAN.

Parties desiring to borrow money in small loans ranging from $200 to $500 from the Lynchburg Perpetual Building and Loan Company on improved Roanoke city real estate will call and file applica- tions with J. W. BOSWELL, agent, 110 1-2 Jefferson street.

BIG CONCERN.

The Webb Shoe Company and the shoe department of D. R. Beal & Co. have been consolidated under the firm name of Sibert, Webb & Co. Their new place of business at 131 Salem avenue has been enlarged by an extension of the building through to Front street, giving the new company ample and elegant quarters for their immense stock. They will in a few days display the largest and most varied stock of shoes ever opened in Southwest Virginia. They invite the public to in- spect their goods.

WHAT MR. WHEAT HAS TO SAY ABOUT THE HAINES BROS.' PIANO.

Roanoke, Va., March 5, 1897.
J. E. Rogers & Co., Piano Dealers, Roan- oke, Va.

Dear Sirs: In reply to yours of this date let me say the Haines Bros. upright piano, which you furnished me in my concerts in the National Business College and Y. M. C. A. the first part of Decem- ber, gave me great satisfaction and re- flected great credit on the well known manufacturers and upon you as their rep- resentative.

It was thoroughly and exhaustively tested in the varied and elaborate pro- gramme I prepared and executed, and in all the special qualities which constitute that noble instrument, the modern piano- forte, it responded with admirable pre- cision and delicacy. Sincerely yours,

LEO WHEAT.
